And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

As one who has always considered myself a sports fan, I am beginning to have my doubts. Oh, I still get just as big a charge out of high school athletics as I always have, but I find myself less and less interested in big time sports.

Apparently I am not alone in my boredom with too much of a good thing in the way of TV sports (I say TV sports because that is the way most of us in West Texas get our exposure to big time sports). Melvin Maddocks, writing in The Christian Science Monitor, takes a long look at the problem and comes up with some interesting observations.

His column, entitled "Overworking at play?" follows:

Sports fans by choice are grumbler, worrying their bones-of-contention as happily as a terrier pretending to be fierce. But the grumbles heard from fans these days—that all the fun-and-games suddenly seem to be more games than fun—are another matter. Something like a case of sports-blahs threatens to become as common as boos from the bleachers on a Saturday afternoon; and the blahs are a lot more sincere.

A grumble-analyzer can break down the general despondency into three specific complaints:

1. In an age otherwise known for its shortages, sports have produced a surplus—indeed a glut.

Old leagues expand. New Leagues are invented.

In Detroit three teams—the Wheels (football), the Stags (hockey), and the Loves (tennis)—came and went before anybody sorted out which was which.

At the rate that new professional sports are being introduced, like soccer and lacrosse, we can expect the World Series of

DAC Presents New Flag for JH School

Seven members of the William Norwood Chapter of the Daughters of the American Colonists (DAC) in Abilene were in Hamlin for the presentation of a new nylon American flag to Marvin Carlton, principal, for the junior high school.

The DAC chapter volunteered to purchase the flag after learning of the March 26 fire which destroyed the junior high school. The flag will be used when a new building is built, Carlton said.

Here for the presentation made at the high school building were Mrs. Custer Russell, chapter bicentennial chairman; Mrs. George Likins, chapter librarian and patriotic education chairman; Mrs. P. M. McKee, chapter regent and state registrar; Mrs. R. W. Norwood, chapter chairman for historical markers; Mrs. M. J. Wingo, colonial courier chairman; and Mrs. Henri Gay Ison, chapter recording secretary. Miss Florine Tye was a guest.

Mrs. McKee said "The object of this Society shall be patriotic, historical and educational; to make research as to the history and deeds of the American colonists and to record and publish the same; to commemorate deeds of colonial interest; to inculcate and foster love of America and its institutions by all its residents; to obey its laws and venerate its flag—the emblem of its power and civil righteousness."

The Rev. and Mrs. James Zedlitz of Snyder will be conducting the services.

The public is invited to attend.

No Paper Next Week

There will not be a Herald next week, according to Publisher Bob Craig. In making the announcement he said that this week's issue has been combined with next week's in order to give both the staff and management of the Herald a vacation.

The Herald office will be closed Friday, July 4, and will re-open Monday, July 14.

Anyone having news stories for the July 17 issue is urged to either mail them to Box 339 or bring them to the office on Monday, July 14.

Traffic Accidents May Claim 54

AUSTIN — The director of the Texas Department of Public Safety today estimated that traffic accidents in the state over the July 4th holiday weekend will claim 54 lives.

Colonel Wilson E. Speir said his department expects travel will be heavy in Texas over the holiday period "particularly in and around recreational areas" such as lakes and beaches.

He added that the estimate covers a 78-hour period starting on Thursday at 6 p.m. and counting until midnight Sunday. Last year during a 102-hour Independence Day celebration, 46 persons were killed in traffic mishaps in Texas.

Speir also pointed out that highway traffic deaths are about 25 per cent over the total at this time one year ago. "This is due to increased travel and somewhat higher speeds," he added.

RAINFALL

In the monthly report of rainfall for June in Hamlin made by Bill Rountree to the National Weather Service, only .24 was recorded.

Of this amount, .16 was recorded June 8 and .08 on June 11. A trace was noted on June 14, 21 and 27.

In a concerted effort to help keep deaths down, the DPS and local law enforcement agencies will be cooperating in the all-out effort to make the streets and highways as safe as possible. All available DPS troopers will be on duty, Speir said, and they will be especially watchful for drinking drivers, speeders and persons driving in a reckless manner.

In addition, the DPS will be working with the news media in a special public education program termed "Operation Motorcide" which focuses public attention on where and why fatal accidents are occurring during the holiday.

CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS—*Briscoe Vetoes College 136 Building Projects

AUSTIN — Gov. Dolph Briscoe's veto of 136 college building projects (which he estimated would cost more than $1 billion) may be the subject of a court case.

University of Texas Board of Regents Chairman Allan Shivers said UT regents will defy the veto and go ahead with at least two of the rejected projects.

Shivers claims the veto is unconstitutional. He said the attorney general long ago held the governor cannot veto appropriations bill riders which do not call for specific expenditures.

The chairman further contends that UT projects will be financed with constitutional funds which cannot be controlled by an act of the legislature.

Briscoe maintains that UT, like other schools, must get College Coordinating Board approval of its construction projects under a new law—or specific legislative approval. He voted the projects, in the first place, because he interpreted them as an effort to bypass the new statute by a subterfuge prior legislative approval through the appropriations riders.

State Comptroller Bob Bullock has indicated he will approve none of the UT building project vouchers in controversy without an attorney general's opinion. It has been hinted regents may seek a declaratory judgement in court to uphold their position.

CAMPAIGN BEGINS
Campaign for adoption of the proposed new state constitution November 4 already is shaping up.

Former Texas Supreme Court Chief Justice Robert W. Calvert will lead the drive for voter support.

Top officials who are supporting the new charter include Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby, House Speaker Bill Clayton, Atty. Gen. John Hill and Supreme Court Chief Justice Joe Greenhill.

Governor Briscoe did not attend the initial meeting to kick off campaign plans. He made clear later that he has not made up his mind whether or not to support the revision. He has never been a supporter of annual legislative sessions, Briscoe reminded. The new constitution would provide for annual legislative sessions. It also would broaden powers of the governor considerably.

COMMITTEE RECESSSES
A House committee studying possible impeachment proceedings against 229th District Judge O. P. Carrillo recessed until July 9 to allow its staff time to catalogue evidence.

Chairman Rep. De Witt Hale of Corpus Christi said he is hopeful the committee will complete its work and vote on its recommendations by August.

If the committee recommends impeachment, the House will convene three weeks later to hear the case. Should the House vote articles of impeachment, the Senate then must "try" the case. A two-thirds majority would be necessary to impeach.

COURTS SPEAK
The State Supreme Court upheld an intermediate court judgment dissolving an injunction by Judge O. P. Carrillo against oil operations

AUSTIN—Twelve new recipes and a spice guide appear in "Texas Beef Recipes," a cookbook published by the Texas Department of Agriculture (TDA).

The booklet concentrates on less expensive cuts of beef and includes a section on comparing baby, grass-fed and grain-fed beef.

There are recipes for casseroles, chili, stew, outdoor beef cookery, marinades and barbecue sauce. Each has been tested by TDA home economists.

An Austin district judge stopped Austin and Dallas

AG OPINIONS

To the good people of Hamlin,

Please accept our sincere thanks for the many expressions of sympathy and condolence, and for the floral offerings during the recent illness and subsequent demise of our father, Jewell S. "Jim" Dickey. I'm afraid we weren't really aware of how wonderful he was until so many of you reminded us. We only knew that he was an outstanding father and husband.

Our special thanks to the staff at the hospital and the nursing home, and to Gracie and the folks at the Bluebonnet Cafe for caring a lot more than duty required. "Diz" Dean and a lot of others certainly tried to make his last days more enjoyable.

He was a proud man who left a heritage his sons will have a hard time living up to. He had a fierce pride in being a native West Texan, and he was justifiably proud of you folks, his friends and associates. My brother and I are better people for having been exposed to you for even a short time. We are both convinced that we might like the weather out here better, and because our immediate families and ties are out here, we will continue to live out here, but there are most certainly no better people in the world than folks from West Texas.

Sincerely,

FAMILY LIFE EDUCATION—

Experiences Affect Development

Day-to-day experiences influence a child's physical, emotional, social and mental development, Mrs. Necy Wilburn, County Extension Agent noted this week.

"All experiences from birth affect and determine what a person will become—and parents play a large role in these experiences."

"As an infant develops a new power or capacity, he also develops an impulse to use that new power. For example, after learning to walk, 12-16-month-old babies usually walk all over the place," Mrs. Wilburn added.

"Wise parents grow and learn with their children. They learn to relax and let a child be himself—to grow in his own way, time and fashion."

Heredity and environment also affect a child's development and behavior.

"For instance, a person's adult height depends on race, sex and family characteristics as well as how he's cared for, what he eats and whether he's happy or not," the agent concluded.

No two children are alike. Each differs in growth rate and pattern.

Although uneven, growth is continuous and follows an orderly sequence or pattern.

Each phase or stage of development has certain characteristics common to that particular stage of growth.

FIFTY YEARS AGO (July 3, 1925)

There are two good reasons why we ask our readers to pardon this week's Herald. First the Editor and family were out of town for four days on a little outing. Second, the 4th of July comes on Saturday and the business men are not telling you much about their store news.

Wednesday morning and afternoon quite a number of localities received good showers. In the Rule community a three-fourth inch rain fell Wednesday morning and in the afternoon showers fell between Hamlin and Stamford, reaching over quite a bit of territory. In the Flat Top section a heavy rain fell and cotton and feed rows were full. Farmers up there are jubilant over the prospects for a bumper feed crop.

Last Sunday morning the Methodist church voted to give their pastor a vacation during the month of July. He and his family will leave July 6, and Mrs. Palmer and children will spend the time with her parents, near Canadian, Tex. Rev. Palmer will go on to Denver, Colo., where he will take a two-week course of study in the University of Denver. They will return about the last of July.

One of Hamlin's most substantial business houses is nearing completion. It is the Wilson Garage, and this structure embodies all the best in modern construction and is 50 by 140 feet. When finished, it will be one of the best Ford Motor Co. houses in this part of the state. Here any Ford can be rebuilt or made new when all equipment is installed.

Just across the street north of the Herald Office, Estes & Boyd are beginning a modern drive-in filling station. These men have been busy for several weeks clearing the lot of the old bank building and now within a few days brick will be laid and a beautiful place will be ready for business.

TWENTY YEARS AGO (July 1, 1955)

No special swimming program is being planned for Splash Day Thursday, at the opening of the new Hamlin swimming pool, announces Jess Parrish, manager of the pool under lease agreement from the Hamlin Foundation. Because of possible congestion of the pool with the hundreds expected to be trying out the water, Parrish says contest and other features will be postponed until a later date. However, a formal opening and celebration is being planned for the near future. In connection with the naming of a bathing beauty queen, various swimming and diving contests will be planned for swimmers of all ages, Parrish indicates.

Hamlin's fire loss record for the year 1955 so far has been a bad one, a review of the sustained losses by Fire Marshal T. W. (Mickey) McGuire reveals. The losses for the first six months of the year already exceed the annual five year average of $15,000 plus, which included the disastrous oil mill fire of 1952. Fire losses for the January through June period this year totaled nearly $24,000. Two big fires responsible for most of this loss were the Paul Bryan Lumber Company and the Hassen Dry Goods Company. Five major fire alarms have been answered by the Hamlin Volunteer Fire Department in 1954.

Thursday was push-off day for one of the happiest bunches of young men and adult leaders you could find. Abilene was the embarkation point, and the Canadian wonderland was the inevitable destination. There were about 30 in the group of senior Boy Scouts and their adult leaders. Four Hamlin young men and an adult leader were among the band that boarded an air conditioned bus for the 4,000 mile round trip. They were L. R. (Red) Fowler Jr., Dee Prewit, Don Adair and Joe B. Stephens Jr., who are members of the Hamlin Explorer Post No. 43, sponsored by the Hamlin Rotary Club and Roy Dunlap, city coordinator, who will accompany the quartet.

TEN YEARS AGO (July 1, 1965)

Libby Schultz, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Schultz, was chosen 1965 Rodeo Queen at the final performance Saturday evening of the three-day show. Miss Schultz, sponsored by Feagan Oil Co., was in competition with 12 other teenage girls. She will reign during the 1966 rodeo next summer. Other winners and their sponsors were: Patricia Feagan, Hamlin Flower Shop, second; Sharee Nail, Turner-Nail Insurance Agency, third; Pamela Holtz, Bishop's Flowers and Kathy Cronk, Brenda's Beauty Shop, tied for fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yates of Stamford were first place winners at Tuesday evening meeting of the Hamlin Duplicate Bridge Club. Mrs. G. W. Comegys and Mrs. Holly Toler were second and Mr. W. L. Hunter Jr., and Mrs. W. O. Willbanks were third.

Mrs. Ruby Joyce Harden of Fort Worth, a graduate of Hamlin High School has been granted a fellowship at Texas Christian University for the academic year of 1965-66. Holder of a bachelor of arts degree in speech from Texas Tech University, Mrs. Harden will be working toward her master of arts degree in speech.

Ben Niedecken, County Attorney of Jones County, has been elected the new president of the Jones County Tuberculosis Association. New officers elected to serve with him are: Leldon Clifton, Hamlin, first vice president; R. T. Taylor, Avoca, second vice president; Miss Hesta Harris, Anson, treasurer; Mrs. Ona High, Stamford, state board director.

NEWS AND VIEWS . . .

And What Have You

Thai foot-boxing between the Tapping (Michigan) Toes and the Achilles (Virginia) Heels to be staged in Perth Amboy, New Jersey, by 1980.

But by then the hustled sports fan will be too numb to notice, wrung out by pre-season games, post-season games, and playoffs-of-playoffs, to say nothing of bimonthly duels between kings of shuffleboard in the Astrodome and Caesar's Palace.

Complaint No. 2: Sports have become so professional, so much a question of business, that the old romantic sounds (e.g., crack of bat against ball) are drowned out by the pervasive ringy-ding-ding of the cash register. Not so very slowly all the games for money have turned into one Money Game.

The tape is no longer applied to measure record home runs but record contracts — down to the smallest of the seven figures.

One looks at a superstar in almost any sport and one sees a small corporation impersonating an athlete.

You want an autograph, kid? Make an appointment with my agent.

Complaint No. 3: A new ugliness characterizes sports as they (and their profits) have multiplied. More violence on the playing fields. More violence in the stands.

Referees have become regular targets for near-pathological abuse.

The mock hatred directed toward other teams' stars appears less mock and more hatred.

Are sports being misused to express the mob emotions of a disturbed time?

Here a little history may become appropriate. Take complaint No. 1 of the blabs victim — too much sports. In Rome the ludi (games) began as a public festival of about two weeks in September. But as the years passed, the ludi diversified and the schedule expanded into other months, occupying, for instance, 17 out of 29 days in April.

And (complaint No. 2) the pots of gold swelled proportionately. They money spent on the ludi was increased by more than a third in just one year (217 B.C.) inevitably changing the nature of sports (complaint No. 3) in the direction of violence.

In the beginning, chariot-racing was to the Romans what baseball has been to Americans: the national sport. Crowds of 150,000 would watch the big races.

But then came the wild beast shows. People bought tickets to see animals kill animals. And at last the gladiators arrived. A taste for pain became synonymous with a taste for action.

Has America come to its time of bread-and-circuses? Oswald Spengler compared the Circus Maximus of Rome with the sports stadiums of Berlin in 1914 and declared that, in both cases, a civilization was proving itself "sterile" — titillating sensationally toward one final yawn.

The comparison is a bit too easy. Still, those who reject the "Decline-of-the-West" scenario should take small comfort from the evidence that in 1975 (as in 217 B.C.) people are becoming more and more bored with their escapes-from-boredom.

New Directories Use Bicentennial Theme

The Bell System's Bicentennial telephone directory cover makes one of its first West Texas appearance on the newly-delivered directory for Hamlin, Anson and Stamford.

"It's a Happy Birthday, America, present from the Bell System and Southwestern Bell," said Bud McCasland, manager for Southwestern Bell.

Featured on front and back covers of the directory are four-color likenesses of 26 characters representing figures from American history, images of family and friends and mythical personalities. All are appropriately talking on various styles of telephones.

The cover faces range from

JUDGE LEON THURMAN—

Working On Family Land Heritage Program

AUSTIN — County Judge Leon Thurman is working with the Texas Department of Agriculture in registering area farmers and ranchers who qualify for honors in the Family Land Heritage Program for 1975.

The program gives recognition to those who have kept land in the family for 100 years or more, maintaining continuous agricultural operations.

Rev. Brigham said, "As you come to our homecoming remember not only a church with a great past but one with a greater future."

Last year over 560 families qualified for certificates and inclusion in the Family Land Heritage Registry, which contains brief histories of all the farms and ranches, the names of current owners, and pictures of early settlers.

The Texas Department of Agriculture has received many requests for the Registry—from universities, historians, and government agencies. It provides an interesting record of agriculture in the early days of Texas, as well as anecdotes about members of the families.

"We also included notations on the 100-year-old structures on the property, no matter what condition. This information can be invaluable to researchers," White stated.

"For this reason, we are trying to register all those who qualify—not only to give these people some recognition, but also to have a permanent record of pioneer agricultural producers in Texas."

Application forms must be certified by the county judge or his designate. They are then mailed to the Texas Department of Agriculture with any pictures of early settlers which can be copied and returned. Deadline is August 15, 1975.

Reddy's helpful tips for your Room Air-Conditioners

- Set air-conditioner to maintain a slightly higher temperature than you might normally; each degree cooler than 78 uses substantially more energy.
- Clean the filter regularly.
- Close draperies, blinds and use shades or awnings on all windows exposed to sun.
- Use appliances that give off heat (ovens, dishwashers, dryers) during cooler times of the day.
- Remember to keep outside doors, windows, and fireplace dampers closed. If you have window units, close the heating vents near the floor, as cool air falls and can escape through vents.

Neinda Philosopher Figures Out Way to End Unemployment—But One Item Missing

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One struggles with an idea this week, you might say.

Dear editor:

As Calvin Coolidge used to say, the cure for unemployment is more jobs, but of course the rub is, how can you create more jobs?

thought and I believe what we need is a sensational new invention that'll take the country by storm. We just can't rely on the old ones anymore. I mean, take cars. Sure, making cars provides a lot of jobs but there's a limit to it, as Detroit is beginning to see. Or take clothes. Changing women's styles every year helps employment in the garment industry, just as convincing men that wide-flared trousers are in right now but narrow ones will be back before the wide ones are worn out. Same thing goes for ties. Also, I've always thought that the plumbers let the economy down when they didn't try to persuade homeowners that styles in bathtubs and other bathroom items should change every spring. Bring out a new model tub every year in different colors and hood design and have people embarrassed to be using last year's mode. The piano people made the same mistake. I know people who've had the same piano for 50 years. With violins it's even worse.

But even so, all that wouldn't have been enough.

What we need to create more jobs is some brand-new invention people simply can't live without, like television. You know, when television first appeared 90 per cent of the people already had all the time-payments they could handle. They were up to their necks and nobody could imagine how they could take on one more major gadget, yet, as everybody knows, 90 per cent of the homes in the country now have television sets, and some have two, especially homes where children are unmanageable and two sets are required if the grown-ups get to watch what they want.

Clearly, the answer to 9 per cent unemployment is some new invention I haven't been able to think up. Oh, I thought of a few, like air-conditioned lawnmowers or TV screens as big as one side of a room so you can see the entire football field instead of the rear end of the quarterback, but those are stop-gap half-measures. Not enough universal appeal.

In the mind of some lonely inventor or abstract-minded scientist working late in some laboratory there must be lurking un-born some unheard-of idea which, once sprung on us, none of us can live without, and the production of which will create thousands and thousands of jobs. Don't worry, we'll find the money to buy it with somehow, and full employment will be at hand. Has President Ford thought of offering a big prize for such an idea? The election is only about a year away. Yours faithfully,

J. A.
